THE QUEENSWAY

Live well in an area that inspires.

Life in Etobicoke means opportunity and convenience. Enjoy a delicious lunch at one of the many family-run restaurants along The Queensway, shop at Sherway Gardens - one of the biggest shopping centres in the province, or head to one of the area's picturesque waterfront parks for a picnic.

This is what Queensway living is all about.

HAVE

Discover the tastes, styles, and hidden gems of the vibrant Queensway community. Enjoy your morning brew from Jimmy's coffee over a relaxing walk with a friend or explore the waterfront, which is just a few minutes away - the options are endless at BLVD.Q.

IT ALL.

Call The Queensway home.

Feel the pulse of South Etobicoke. Just moments away from the Gardiner Expressway/QEW and Highway 427, at BLVD.Q you'll have access to both the downtown core and Mississauga in under 20 minutes. For the trips where transit is the best choice, hop on the TTC or GO Transit and enjoy a car-free day.

Nature

At BLVD.Q residents can enjoy walking to local spots such as Queensway Park and Jeff Healey Park, both located just north of The Queensway, and other Etobicoke green spaces like Centennial Park and Humber Bay Shores. The real gems when it comes to parks in South Etobicoke are the tranquil spaces near the water. Humber Bay Park East is just a 9 minute drive from BLVD.Q.

“

The vision for BLVD.Q is to create a place of future cultural significance. It's important that the common spaces of the building, both interior and exterior, reflect the neighbourhood's fabric, both past and present. We want to add to The Queensway in a fluid manner that locals will be pleased with.
