A TRANSFORMATIVE NEIGHBOURHOOD

WITH ENDLESS POSSIBILITIES

Etobicoke City Centre has been designated as an Urban Growth Centre by the Province of Ontario, which brings enhanced infrastructure investment and job creation opportunities, and will see the area transform into Toronto's newest high-density transit-oriented neighbourhood. There is a new Civic Centre planned for the area, providing a place for neighbourhood residents to gather, learn, and participate in activities. This facility will include a new Toronto Public Library branch, community recreation centre, childcare centre, and more.

The nearby Kipling Station, just a 5-minute walk away, having recently undergone a $70+ million expansion, connects residents to the TTC, MiWay, and GO Transit, while Highway 427 and the Gardiner/QEW provide efficient commuting options in all directions.

A COMMUNITY DEFINED BY THE DETAILS

There is a pleasing dichotomy to Arcadia District's architecture, developed through meticulous planning and a timeless eye for craftsmanship. The four buildings retain their distinct identities through various colours of brick and precast materials, while common elements, such as the front facades, podium glass, and distinctive archways merge to create a unique vision of continuity.

With retail at grade and a sweeping Privately-Owned Publicly Accessible Spaces (POPS) pedestrian promenade with tables and chairs from the adjacent restaurants on the ground floor, residents will enjoy outdoor spaces to gather and connect.

“ With this being EllisDon’s flagship residential project, it was vital to make a statement with Arcadia District. The architecture, including the materiality and arched forms, creates an identity above what is standard for the marketplace, while also enhancing the surrounding streetscape to intricately harmonize our towers within the broader established community.

TECHNOLOGY WITH STYLE

Every suite at Arcadia District will feature the elevated and sophisticated presence of SMEG major appliances. This distinguished Italian luxury appliance brand is known for its exceptional craftsmanship, timeless designs, and innovative features. This marks the first SMEG major partnership in Canada, and the first at this scale in North America.

SMEG is an Italian home appliance manufacturer based in Guastalla, near Reggio Emilia, in the northern Italian region of Emilia-Romagna. SMEG has subsidiaries worldwide, alongside overseas sales offices, and an extensive sales partner network.

The Classica Collection by SMEG, the chosen line of major appliances to feature at Arcadia District, was designed by Guido Canali, an Italian architect who has contributed to the restoration of exceptional historical structures such as the National Gallery in Parma, the Santa Maria della Scala in Siena, Prada's headquarters in Tuscany, and the Museum of the Duomo in Milan's Main Square. The collection's aesthetic is distinctive for the way it uses stainless steel with the utmost stylistic rigor, highlighting the unique control knobs, and the clean, refined, and ergonomic handles that combine typical elements of industrial design.

Design, for SMEG, is central: the way that a product communicates with its surroundings, and enables users to interact with it. Attention to detail, and creative design solutions bring homes that reflect the image of their occupants to life. With SMEG, appliances take center stage in the heart of the home, a place where people can congregate. The kitchen has, over the past few decades, become a perfect, fully-equipped backdrop for the most-important and most-enjoyable moments in any home.

A FUTURE FOCUSED ON SUSTAINABILITY

Geothermal Technology at Arcadia District

By taking advantage of the Earth's consistent, below-surface temperature of 55 degrees Fahrenheit, geothermal exchange systems are able to warm and cool buildings with minimal environmental impact. These systems use ground loops to circulate fluid beneath the surface. In winter, the fluid absorbs heat from the Earth to heat the building and in the summer heat is transferred from the building to the ground, generating cool air in the process.

BETTER BUILDINGS

- The most advanced technology to reduce utility fees.

GEOHERMAL EXCHANGE BENEFITS

- Lower costs for heating and cooling.
- Property management can reduce capital expenditure reserve.
- Future-proofing of resale value as condo suites are sustainable, energy efficient, and without greenhouse gas emissions.

BUILT FOR THE FUTURE

- Minimize natural gas.
- Reduce energy and GHG emissions.

BUILDING GREEN MADE EASY

- Lower operating costs and less maintenance.
- Residents save on utility bills with fixed annual increases.

From Humble Beginnings

EllisDon dates back to 1951 with the construction of a small schoolhouse in London, Ontario. 35 years later, the company was awarded the design-and-build contract for the Sky Dome, which would, at the time, feature the world's first retractable stadium roof. Though these two projects could not have been more different, the approach has always remained consistent: build with community-minded principles.

Now with 4,000+ salaried employees, EllisDon is one of the largest construction companies in Canada, working on close to $5 billion in projects annually. These are buildings and projects that are seen coast-to-coast: prominent art galleries, new buildings on university campuses, hospitals, convention centres, and more.

Beyond the physical building, the company is focused on evolving: it was the first construction company to own its own crane, one of the first to digitize accounting and cost control systems, and in 2016 launched The Carbon Impact Initiative Action Plan in support of Canada's international climate change commitments.

Employees are the Core

Employees are the heart of any great company. To demonstrate how important the people who guide every project and idea are, EllisDon is becoming 100% employee owned. Empowering those people to have a voice strengthens the central values: Freedom, Trust, Complete Openness, Mutual Accountability, Entrepreneurial Enthusiasm, and Mutual Respect. When everyone has a stake, standards are raised, and the final product is greater.

Technology as the Future

As virtual reality, artificial intelligence, and the tech industry disrupt the supply chains of the construction industry, embracing change as it comes is the best way to stay ahead of the curve. With 60+ programmers developing software in-house, EllisDon is at the forefront of the sector's technology, working to include it in the building process to ensure efficiency at every stage.

Idea, Design, Execution

EllisDon has carved out its position as an all encompassing, vertically-integrated service provider. Through its various departments, including Capital Services, Energy & Digital Services, Facilities Management, and Sustainable Building Divisions, this full suite of services enables the company to deliver an end product more efficiently, from pre-construction to the operation and maintenance stages.

Entrepreneurial Spirit Drives Innovation

Strategy, direction, and even purpose can change over time, but great values are permanent. Staying dynamic in an industry typically resistant to change allows the company to stay ahead of client expectations. While EllisDon's underlying values will remain the same, a willingness to adapt can spell success for the future.

Transforming The Industry Starts With Us

Responding to the urgent need for all companies to take responsibility for their climate impacts, we're committed to investing in our collective future. The company is going to reach our sustainability goals, including committing to set verifiable objectives through the Science-Based Targets Initiative, an organization that independently assesses corporate emissions reduction targets according to those identified in the Paris Climate Agreement. This means we've pledged to get to net-zero emissions by 2050 with reduction milestones starting in 2030.

2. Rogers Centre (formerly SkyDome), Toronto
3. Yorkdale Shopping Centre, Toronto
